

Corporate Headquarters

Houston is a major corporate center. Numerous Fortune 500 companies, multinationals and domestic concerns maintain operations here.

FORTUNE 500 COMPANIES HEADQUARTERED IN HOUSTON
Company/Rank	Revenues ($000,000)	Company/Rank	Revenues ($000,000)
ConocoPhillips (5)	$178,558.0	National Oilwell Varco (268)	$9,789.0
Marathon Oil (36)	60,044.0	Centerpoint Energy (271)	9,623.0
Sysco (70)	35,042.1	KBR (284)	9,194.0
Enterprise GP Holdings (90)	26,713.8	Smith International (302)	8,764.3
Plains All American Pipeline (121)	20,394.0	Enbridge Energy Partners (343)	7,282.6
Andarko (159)	15,916.0	Targa Resources (344)	7,269.7
Halliburton (167)	15,264.0	Group 1 Automotive (379)	6,393.0
Continental Airlines (178)	14,232.0	Frontier Oil (462)	5,188.7
Waste Management (199)	13,310.0	BJ Services (482)	4,802.4
Knight (230)	11,505.7	El Paso (486)	4,749.0
Reliant Energy (237)	11,208.7	Spectra Energy (487)	4,742.0
Baker Hughes (252)	10,428.2	Cameron International (490)	4,666.4
Apache (262)	9,977.9	FMC Technologies (498)	4,638.6
Source: Fortune , April 30, 2008

- Twenty-six companies on the 2008 Fortune 500 list are headquartered in Houston.
- Houston ranks third among metropolitan statistical areas in the number of Fortune 500 headquarters, behind New York (73) and Chicago (30) and ahead of Dallas-Fort Worth (23), Minneapolis-St. Paul (18) and Los Angeles (17). Many other Fortune 500 companies maintain U.S. administrative headquarters in Houston.
- Of the world's 100 largest non-U.S.-based corporations, more than half have operations in Houston.